

International Scholarly Conference on the Partition of Macedonia and the Balkan Wars of 1912-13

Dates: 4th September – 7th September 2013

Venue: Monash University Law Chambers, 555 Lonsdale St, Melbourne

This year marks the 100th anniversary of the end of the second Balkan War. As a result of this war, Macedonia, which was then part of the Ottoman Empire, was divided and annexed by Greece, Serbia and Bulgaria. This was sanctioned by the signing of the Treaty of Bucharest on the 10th of August 1913. In the context of Macedonia's highly contested modern history and the current topicality of the Republic of Macedonia's international recognition, this multidisciplinary conference will aim to make a substantial contribution to an understanding of this important aspect of modern Macedonian history. The conference will attempt a historical survey of the context and the effects, both short and long term, of the partition of Macedonia on the inhabitants of Macedonia, from a variety of perspectives, especially linguistic, sociological, anthropological and political.
